NSX Announcement

STL to negotiate a new storage and handling agreement with customers

Sugar Terminals Limited (STL, NSX:SUG) has today announced that the current raw sugar Storage and Handling Agreements with all STL customers will expire on 30 June 2022. This is because not all of its marketing customers have elected to exercise the final extension of their storage and handling agreements with STL.

STL Chairman Mark Gray said “As a result, STL will take the necessary steps to have in place new Storage and Handling Agreements by 30 June 2022”.
